TIGER 68

Our town is not a fashionable one . . . the buildings are old . . . the streets, narrow. The stores wear not the bright neon jewels of the city . . . on the corners, no sign of overshadowing traffic lights. The homes are simple in structure and style . . . the church buildings, a basic white frame.

The train passes through twice a day; there is seldom a fire; and the bank very rarely sees a robber. The traffic is sparce, the pets, plentiful . . . the kids, kids.

Life . . . viewed on the surface . . . is unassuming, uncomplicated, easy going, and friendly. This is our corner of America and we love it.

Oglesby, Texas

DEDICATION
